

REP. KATRINA ASAY, R-MILTON

PERSONAL:

Katrina has been a resident of South King County for 26 years, and has a long history of involvement in her community and local government. Katrina and her husband, Neil, an employee of Boeing, have been married for 33 years. They have three children and three grandchildren. In her free time she enjoys cooking, taking long road trips with Neil on their Goldwing, and spending quality time with family.

PUBLIC SERVICE:

Katrina has dedicated her life to public service, and has served the people of Milton in the City Council from 1995 to 2003. She also served as the mayor of Milton from 2003 to 2010. She steered the city of Milton through one of its most difficult economic times by making tough decisions and working across the aisle to get things done. She has also served as:

- State Board member of Association of Washington Cities;
- Past President of Pierce County Cities and Towns Association;
- Member of King County's Domestic Violence Initiative;
- Transportation Policy Committee and Growth Management;
- Economic Development District;
- Board member for Suburban Cities Association of King County;
- Representative to Puget Sound Regional Council for Transportation; and
- Past President of Fife/Milton Rotary.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Katrina Asay has served families and small businesses as a tax preparer for more than 20 years, and has 15 years experience as a licensed real estate agent. She understands the impact of taxes on families and that a strong housing market and successful small businesses are keys to a healthy state and local economy.
