

REP. DAVID TAYLOR, R- MOXEE

---

EDUCATION

Ellensburg High School

Central Washington University, Bachelor of Arts in geography with an emphasis on land studies

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Director, Kittitas County Community Development Services Department

Planning Director, Kittitas County Planning Department

Owner, Taylor Consulting Group, specializing in land-use, water and agriculture issues, policy development and government relations

Owner, Taylor Angus Ranch

Co-owner, D Bar D Custom Fabricators

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Past Yakima County president and vice president, Washington Cattlemen's Association

Member, Land Use Committee, Washington Cattlemen's Association

Former member, Board of Directors, Cattle Producers of Washington

State chairman, Land Use Committee, Washington State Farm Bureau

Former member, Legislative Committee, Washington State Farm Bureau

Former board member, Yakima County Farm Bureau

Member, Washington Agriculture and Forestry Education Foundation, Class 28

Director, Government Affairs, Association of Realtors, Kittitas County, Yakima and Lower Yakima Valley

CIVIC ACTIVITIES

Cattle in the Classroom

4-H Beef Leader

AWARDS

Washington Farm Bureau Excellence in Agriculture

Washington Farm Bureau Discussion Meet

STATE GOVERNMENT EXPERIENCE

State Representative, appointed March 2009

PERSONAL

David and his wife, Molly, a title manager in Yakima, reside in Moxee with their children, Tiffany, 12, and Brock, 10.