

Rep. Dan Griffey, R-Allyn

PERSONAL:

Dan Griffey began his career of service as a volunteer firefighter at 16 and continues now professionally as a lieutenant firefighter. Dan has been married to his wife, Dinah, for more than 20 years. The Griffey family has three daughters and two grandchildren. You can find them volunteering in the community, digging up clams, hiking the forest trails and cheering on the Seahawks.

PROFESSIONAL:

- Lieutenant firefighter -Career
- Class "A" CDL truck driver
- Business owner

EDUCATION:

- North Bend Fire Academy
- Fire officer certification—and continuing education in the fire service
- Two-year certification in industrial electronics
- Mechanic

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

- Volunteer firefighter at age 16 and, at the time, was one of the youngest EMT in Washington state.
- United Way volunteer.
- Teddy Bear Brigade (handing out toys and food to those in need at Christmas).
- Serving community meals at St. Davids in Shelton.
- Mason County Historical Society.
- Wild Felid Advocacy Center Volunteer.
- Habitat for Humanity, and many more.