Go inside the Legislature, online at leg.wa.gov

Here's a great link to start with: "Visiting the Legislature."

This will take you to a page that tells you how to participate in the process, how laws are made, and visitor information about the state Capitol.

Click on "Bill information" to find information about a bill or topic.

The screenshot shows the Washington State Legislature website. The header includes the logo and navigation links: Legislature Home, Senate, House of Representatives, Contact Us, Search, Help, and Mobile. The main content area is titled 'What's happening on the floor?' and provides links to House and Senate display boards. Below this are several tabs: Committee Meetings, Legislator Information, Find Your District, Bill Search, and Find Laws & Rules. A table lists various services and information available for both the House and Senate, including Rosters, Legislator E-mail Services, Leadership, Legislator Pages, Legislator Portraits, and Caucus Home Pages. A sidebar on the left contains links for 'Inside the Legislature' and 'Outside the Legislature'.

Keeping in Touch

Government can often seem distant and confusing. Knowing whom to contact when you have a problem or concern can make a difference. As your state representative, I am committed to help make government more accessible and accountable to you. Below is a quick-access directory of phone numbers and web addresses so you may contact your government officials. Post this near your computer, telephone, or someplace where you can easily find it.

Watch or Listen to TVW

TVW (TV Washington), a non-profit public affairs network, broadcasts the Legislature during session on cable TV throughout the state. Its Internet site (tvw.org) allows you to listen to legislative presentations, debates and votes as they happen.
